This year's top five winners, who will now go on to the Northern Region Spelling Bee on February 24, include: Nicholas Vitebsky, Daniel Hellriegel, Keshav Chhawchharia, Michelle Zychowski and Sophie Hawkes.

The event was co-chaired by Juniors members Jenna Roselli and Chris Dellaratta. Special thanks to WMJWC members Dawn Nutt (judge) and Francesca Mullany (word caller) (you may want to check her spelling). Also there to help were WMJWC alumni Wendy Parrinello and Colleen Murphy who helped with the judging. Friends of WMJWC Kris Wagoner and Jill Chetta of Mendham who helped with the certificates and prize distribution.

Congrats to all the winners! Best of luck at the regional contest!

President's Letter

When I joined Juniors I wasn't sure what to expect. I was 8 months pregnant with my second child and attended the Spring Banquet excited to meet new women and become involved in our community. Now, almost four years later, I am proud and honored to be a part of this organization. This club is made up of smart, beautiful, caring, talented, and dynamic women. Not only do we come together for events to serve our communities, but we are there for each other during joyous occasions, as well, as trying times in our lives. This is what has inspired me to want to lead WMJWC into the future and to serve as your Co-President for 2013.

Nicole and I would like to welcome our newest members: Amanda Culbertson, Corrie Viola, Sandy Greco, Tania Cosmi, Laura Wilson, Teresa Hecht, Nicole Shaw, Lisa Lowe. We are happy to have you! Please feel free to ask either Nicole and I or any junior if you have any questions.

As we begin our journey into 2013, I want everyone to know that there is always a need for improvement and change, so please do not hesitate to bring your ideas to the table. I am looking forward to a successful Junior year, so let's work hard and have FUN!

Kelly
